Dear Mick,

RE: International Workers Memorial Day 2020

Thank you for your letter dated the 23rd April to Mike Brown. Mike has asked me to respond on his behalf.

Every loss of a transport worker is tragic for their family and friends, and also their teams and wider transport family. We are absolutely devastated at the recent loss of transport workers due to Coronavirus and have been keen that we help to pay tribute to them.

I can confirm that Transport for London (TfL) will be supporting this initiative and encouraging its staff to do so by communicating the minute's silence through its usual communication channels with staff.

We will therefore make the necessary arrangements to support this event.

Yours sincerely
