TOTTENHAM COURT RD STATION

9AM TUESDAY 24TH MAY

On Tuesday, the Elizabeth line finally opens and the world will be told how great transport in London is. But thousands of jobs (600 on tube stations alone) are under threat from Tory cuts to transport funding in London. A pensions grab is underway and working agreements are being torn up. Fewer staff, knackered staff, poorer service; this is 'managed decline' the Mayor speaks of. None of this is inevitable. We have the power to change their plans. RMT fights back.

NO TO MANAGED DECLINE!

- Fund public transport
- No Job cuts
- Defend pensions and conditions
